ABOUT

The seminar shows interactive methods in European civic education. As a participant, you will be able to reach a deep understanding of society and societal processes from different perspectives.

Our simulation seminars actively train participation and protection of interests as a basis for real action as well as a fundamental comprehension of European sociopolitical connections.

WORKSHOP

Students from any faculty after their first study year as well as any other non-student participants interested in European integration, democracy and civic society. Working language will be English.

COSTS

The costs for the Seminar are funded by German Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Every Participant receives the Certification on a full attendance basis.

TRAINERS

The „Train the Trainer-Seminar“ will take place on an extra third day after the regular workshop – participants will be able to do the workshop on their own (call for young researchers/trainers)!

REGISTRATION

Please submit a single pdf document with CV, motivation letter (1 page), desired dates and venue by email to the country coordinator – all necessary contact information on the right!
